

Special forever

An environmental communications project

Registration form 2009

Learn about local environments and join primary schools across the Murray-Darling Basin in Special Forever 2009.

Register online at www.specialforever.org.au or fax this form to e:lit 02 9565 1070 by the end of Term 1. If you have already registered online there is no need to return this fax.

School details:

Name (in full, please indicate if public, primary, parish etc): _____

Address: _____

State: _____

Postcode: _____

Phone: ( ) _____

Fax: ( ) _____

Name of contact: _____

Email of contact: _____

Region (if known): _____

Number of teachers participating (approx): _____

Number of students participating (approx): _____

Will you be involving a community group or government agency in your project?
eg. Landcare, or Catchment Management Authority

Yes     No     Don't know

If yes, please specify: _____

Description of project (optional):

_____
_____
_____

Schools will receive:

- Regular email updates and information about the project
- Free resources and PD opportunities
- Support from your Regional Coordinator

New teaching units incorporating ICT are available on the website: www.specialforever.org.au

Further information

Contact: Val Noake, e:lit – Primary English Teaching Association

Phone: 02 9565 1277 Fax: 02 9565 1070 Email: val.noake@elit.edu.au www.specialforever.org.au

Proudly partnered by

